

Sinclair Broadcasting's intent to broadcast an anti-Kerry documentation a few days before the election is a de-visive far-right, fundamentalist move. There have to be checks and balances in the big network consolidations!